Music studios often offer private lessons with a maximum enrollment of one student per class. Jackrabbit's class listings can accommodate that requirement.

B's Music Shop - https://shop.bsmusicshop.com/ scatters their class listings among many pages, which also feature the instructor's bio.

- From the Home page, Choose Lessons. Then pick an Instrument (or pick "All," the last one), and you can see the Instructor's Class availability and a short video introducing each Instructor. Once a time slot is filled, it no longer appears in the class listing.
